Mrs. Maria Hartle, relict of George Hartle, died in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Miss Mabel Larson of Grand Williams, 22 miles west of Coletown, Saturday afternoon. A few weeks ago she was bitten on the hand by a rat and blood poison developed, causing her death. She was 82 years old. Funeral services were held at the Christian church in this city Monday afternoon and burial made in Greenville cemetery.

Charles Clegg of Miami coun-resides 2 miles south of Weaver Station, was found dead Saturday night, his body lying along side the Panhandle railroad track near Weaver Station. He purchased a ticket at the station here for the above village and was seen to get off the train there and start up the track for his brother's home. It is the supposition that he sat down on the ties and went to sleep and was struck and killed by a freight train. The crew of No. 8, east bound, reported seeing the body along the track and Coroner Wolverton notified. An undertaken from this city went down to Weaver Station, took charge of the remains and brought them to his establishment Sunday morning. His remains were sent to Laura O., on Monday for burial. He was about 38 years old and leaves his wife and two children.

The three and a half year old daughter of Charles Hart, residing near Hillgrove, had her right arm cut off at the wrist and deep gash cut in her left leg last Monday morning by getting in the way of a mower her father was operating in cutting a field of millet. The little one had rid den around the field with her father several times and he had taken her to the shade of a tree, she being tired and hot, but see ing her father approaching she concluded to hide herself in the uncut millet, then jump out at him and frighten him in her child ish way, but miscalculated the distance and did not jump out at him soon enough, and hence was caught by the knives of the mower as above related. The little one's sufferings were relieved as soon as possible, but she will be a cripple for life.

Leo Breach, 19 years old, indicted for grand larceny, entered a plea of guilty and Judge Tee garden sentenced him to the Mansfield Reformatory, but sus pended sentence upon his prom ise to be good.

Frank Birt of Burkettsville, Isaac Shields o Van Buren township, Sam Book walter of Harrison township.

> Mrs. Caroline Beers, widow of Thomas Beers, of this city, created quite a sensation at Columbus last Thursday when she at tempted to gain forcible entrance to a hotel elevator in which were President Taft and party. She said she was the President's wife and wanted to present him with a sacred knife. The officials at once took her in charge and upon searching her, two small penknives were found concealed in the bosom of her dress. They at once surmised that it was her intention to do bodily harm to the President, but it seems she was just a little bit too patriotic and enthusiastic. Her daughter, Mrs. Nellie Jarvis, with whom Mrs. Beers makes her home, is in charge of the Western Union elegraph office in this city. Attorney L. E. Chenoweth went up to Columbus Thursday and bro't

Mrs. Beers back home. The most severe electrical storm and one of the hardest rains of the summer visited this locality on Wednesday evening of last week, between eight and nine o'clock and did quite a great deal of damage. The residence on West Water street occupied by Harry Willson, the confectioner, was struck and set on fire, necessitating the calling out of the fire department, who worked like trojans and were considerably handicapped by the electric light and telephone wires being so highly charged with electricity as to make them dangerous. The blaze was finally quenched but with considerable loss to Mr. Willson's goods by smoke and water. The Glander tobacco warehouse, two doors east of Mr. Willson's, was also struck by lightning and a blaze started soon after Mr. Willson's hone was struck, and for a while things looked rather dangerous in that locality. This fire was also extinguished with no great oss. The residents of that vicinity were treated to quite a pyrotechnic display for a few minutes. An automobile coming in from the west was also affected by the current of electricity while on West Main street and the carburetor burned out, but no other damage done, although it was put out of commission for the time being. During the same storm lightning struck B. M. Mc-Cabe's residence, corner of Central avenue and Pearl street, tearing quite a hole in the roof and knocking off a part of a chimney. A barn on Robert Clemen's farm, near Nashville, was struck that night, set on fire and burned to the ground. Quite a lot of grain and farming implements were consumed.

The correct result of the vote on the constitutional amendments will not be known until some time today, but at the time f going to press yesterday the returns received from the state indicated the defeat of most of them. Apparently the woman's suffrage amendment has been decisively defeated, smashing majorities against it being rolled up in the large cities. The proposal to license saloons seems to have carried, receiving large ma orities in various urban centers. Returns by bulletin from one fifth of the state had been received up to midnight Tuesday and they were a practical confirmation of the earlier indications. They showed a continuing gain for initiative and referendum and other progressive measures, with the exception of woman's suffrage. The primary elections amendment gained the greatest amount of popularity. The rural precincts will decide the fate of initiative and referendum. The good roads proposition is badly defeated. In this city every proposition was voted down, with the exception of license, by majorities of from two and three to one, and, no doubt the vote of the county will show a like result.

Nineteen Miles a Second without a jar, shock or disturbance, is the awful speed of our earth through space. We wonder at such ease of pature's movement, and so do those who take Dr. King's New Life Pills. No griping, no distress, just thorough work that brings good health and fine feelings. 25c. Wm. Brutal Thomas. The worm eaten chestnut of all proverbs is-well, you know what it s-"Unlucky at cards, lucky at love." If your bridge partner is a bit flirty she always goo-goos at you and springs it. Then she leads you away to a se cluded spot. You know. Tommy Treat hinger was the only one we ever knew to beat this game, and that was an accident. Here was the way of it: "Are you very lucky at cards?" ask-

"Very," said Tommy. "I always "How about love?" she
